Roanoke Parks and Recreation
Fact Sheet—New City Park

New City Park Features Sate-of-the-Art Playground and Fitness Path

- ◆ Located adjacent to the Miller Court and Countryside neighborhoods, the park includes several unique experiences including an inclusive playground with an interactive gaming system, a musical trail, a larger loop fitness trail and a large family picnic shelter.
- ◆ The city's first handicap accessible inclusive playground includes a high-tech NEOS outdoor gaming system combining the excitement of electronic games with the continued movement of aerobic exercise.
- ◆ Additional playground features include a rubberized surface, an innovative "drop zone" fireman's pole, adventure tubes, a rope bridge and an oversized handicap accessible Aero-Glider.
- ◆ Directly adjacent to the playground is a music loop leading visitors to a variety of outdoor musical instruments including handicap accessible Pagoda bells, percussion instruments and tuned drums.
- ◆ A three-fourth mile section of the Lick Run Greenway and a brand new three-fourth mile fitness trail with nine recreation stations reside on 33 acres of rolling hills.
- ◆ A 25x42 open-air shelter house seats approximately 50 people and houses a variety of accessible outdoor grills and dining options.
